This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

For copying and printing its early records, the town of Hanover voted one hundred dollars at the annual meeting in March, 1903, and three hundred and fifty dollars at the annual meeting in March, 1904. The selectmen appointed as an editing committee: Professor Herbert D. Foster, Mr. George M. Bridgman, Town Clerk, and Professor Sidney B. Fay.

The committee presents in this printed book an accurate verbatim copy of the volume containing the earliest records of the town meetings and selectmen, from "the first Town Meeting for the Town of Hanover . . . met august 25th 1761," to "the 25th day of April, 1818." The copy was made by Mr. William D. Walker, and reproduces faithfully the original spelling, capitalization and punctuation. The copy and the printed book have been compared with the original, by the committee, word for word, and, where necessary, letter by letter. The index was made by Miss Laura Woolsey Lord.

The volume containing the original records is a parchment bound folio, 8 x 12¾ inches, with 338 pages. It appears to have been bought in 1773 or 1774, for 9 s. 6 d. The entries from 1761 to October 4, 1773, were copied into this volume from an earlier record, no longer in existence. These facts are indicated by the following votes: (See pages 14 and 17.)

"Octr 4th 1773—Voted to allow Edm'd Freeman 8/9 for a Book for the use of the Town.

"Voted that the former Votes passed in this Town be transmitted into stl Book

"March ye 8th 1774—Voted to allow Edmund Freeman for Town Book 9/6"

These records were entered in the book by the same hand which had kept the original records since 1767, "Edmund

Digitized by Google

Freeman of Hanover," who was town clerk from 1767 to 1778, and the first actual settler in Hanover, coming here from Mansfield, Connecticut, with his wife and two children, in May, 1765.

The Hanover records contain the customary actions of town meetings at that day, viz.: election of officers, some of them the same as today, some, like the tythingmen, hogreeves and deerriffs, unnecessary now, but important in the colonial life of New England; restrictions on hogs running at large; the calling and difficult dismissal of the minister of the town; the building of meeting house and school house; the support of the ministry and schools; determining of taxes, tax rates and valuation; care of the poor and the sick, in 1788 disapproving of "annoculation of the small pox" (p. 77). The first town meetings were those of the proprietors from 1761 to 1766, all held in Mansfield, Connecticut. The first "Meeting of the Inhabitants of the Town of Hanover" was held in Hanover, July 22, 1767. At this time there were only twenty-six heads of families, and eleven unmarried men, with a total population of ninety-two; but they showed the native capacity of New England settlers for orderly political life, by at once instituting the fully developed and familiar system of town government, electing town officers and making arrangements for "supporting the Gospel."

Items of more than local interest are the actions during the Revolution: adoption of the American Association in 1775, Committee of Safety, 1776, provisions for ammunition and militia (pp. 21, 24, 26ff.); elections of state and national officials; votes for Daniel Webster as representative to congress, in 1812 and 1814 (pp. 271, 283); votes on the state constitution and its revisions; the relations with Dartmouth College; votes regarding the Embargo Act (pp. 246–9), and the War of 1812 (pp. 268–9).

The selectmens' records deal chiefly with licenses to sell "Speretous Liquors" or keep tavern, ten of these being granted in 1794. They also include surveys and alterations of roads, perambulation of town lines, and a warning to certain persons to depart (pp. 124, 295, 218). No separate record of acts of the selectmen, for this period, has been found, and it is doubtful whether such a record existed.

The records also include some miscellaneous items, like drawing of jurors, constable's warrants and returns, and frequent notices of stray horses and cattle and articles lost and found.

The larger interest of this record lies in its constant suggestion of that sound sense and capacity for self-government which characterized the plain people of New England, and which gives the early history of their towns so significant a a place in the rise of modern democracy.

The records for the fifty-seven years covered in the first volume, 1761–1818, were kept, with a few exceptions of clerks pro tempore (noted in the complete list under "clerk" in index), by the following eight town clerks, five of them being of the Freeman family, prominent in the settlement and early history of the town:

1. "Edmund Freeman Junr" of Mansfield, Conn., August, 1761–March, 1767.
2. "Edmund Freeman of Hanover," March, 1767–March, 1778.
3. Jonathan Freeman, March, 1778–March, 1787.
4. Russell Freeman, March, 1787–March, 1789.
5. William Chandler, March, 1789–March, 1794.
6. "Doct^r Joel Brown," March, 1794–March, 1802; March, 1804–March, 1809.
7. Dyer Willis, March, 1802–March, 1804.
8. Jonathan Freeman, 2d, March, 1809–March, 1832; March, 1833–March, 1836; March, 1838–March, 1848.

The charter of the town, printed in the Appendix (p. 306), is a verbatim reprint of the copy in the possession of the Secretary of State at Concord. The supplementary grant of 1775, also given in the appendix, is reprinted from the copy in the New Hampshire State Papers, Vol. XXV, pp. 82–85, where there will also be found sketch plans of the boundaries of the town. On page 77 of the same volume is a list of books and articles bearing on the history of the town and college; and on pages 85–90 the "Grant to Dartmouth College and Eleazar Wheelock, 1771" (with plan), and the "Dartmouth College Ferry, 1772."

Digitized by Google

The original Hanover Proprietors' Records (1761–1807), and the first volume of births, marriages, and deaths (1762–1846), are of great interest and value. They would complete the records of the town for its first half century, and deserve to be printed. With these records all in print, and with the invaluable "History of Dartmouth College and the Town of Hanover," by the late Judge Frederick Chase (to be continued in a second volume by Professor John King Lord), the town will be provided with unusually valuable material on its early history.

3d We the Subscribers Selectmen of the Town of Hanover and a Committee appointed to Join with them in Laying out highways in said Town have by direction of said Town proceeded to view and establish the highway from the Meeting House in said Town to the Dwelling House of Benjamin Hatch. have viewed the several places propofed for a highway and examined the antient survey of said road as laid out by Delr Woodard Jona Freeman and John Wright (a Committee appointed for that purpose) Novr 7th 1769 as may appear by the record of the propriety of the Town of Hanover—and it does to us appear that the highway laid out by the abovesaid Committee is on the most suitable and convenient Land for said purpose. that by Dn Ordways proposal to said Committee he had a due compensation for said road by an allowance an allowance in the two mile road, opposite to said Highway and we do therefore recomend to said Town to Establish and open the road agreeable to the above said Survey we further advise as there is no Deed of Conveyance given to Deacon Ordway of the abovesd allowance that a Committee be appointed, to make a Deed of the same if the said Dn Ordway shall require it.

To the Brethren of the first Church of Christ and to the people in Hanover

Beloved Brethren

I have Endeavoured to take into the most serious consideration the call you have given me to settle amongst you in the Gospel Ministry—the occasion you have to Give me or any one else an invitation of this nature is much to be lamented—your situation I view as being critical and difficult which has given me no small anxiety of mind in determining what is duty as to a compliance with your request [81] when I consider the importance of the divine Honour the interest of the redeemers Kingdom, & the worth of souls immortal; the greatness of the sacred work and my own insufficiency for it, I am ready to tremble at the thought of undertaking for you But weighing matters on every hand your call appears to me to be the call of Providence: and therefore with a firm reliance on the alsufficient grace of God, I give an affirmative answer thereto earnestly solisiting a remembrance in your adresses to the mercy-seat that God would be with me, crown my labours with success—and make me a rich blessing to you so long as he shall see fit to continue me in the pastoral office and work in this place

Wishing you the smiles of Heaven, the Gracious presence and divine protection of the great Head of the Church I subscrib myself

your cordial Friend and Pastor Elect

Resolved 1st That it is the duty and unalienable right of the Citizens of this State, especially in times of public danger and distreſs, to aſsemble in an orderly and peaceable manner and "consult upon the common good."

2nd That the present crisis is distreſsing and alarming and imperiously calls for the unanimity, vigilance, firmneſs, and patriotism of all the real friends of our Country.

3rd That in former years the sober habits, the persevereing industry, and enterprise of our fellow citizens, under the fostering care of government and the smiles of Providence were crowned with succeſs; and by the bleſsings of Providence on our industry the year past, our harvests have been abundant, no pestilence hath raged—no war hath desolated—and yet our fellow citizens are now impoverished and distressed and the national resources are rapidly diminishing.—

4th That in our opinion the Act laying an embargo on our ships and vessels paſsed at the last session of Congress and the several acts supplementary thereto have in their operation occasioned our present distresses—for which we have no consolation of a patriotic nature. If we view them as measures of coercion they seem to operate almost wholly on ourselves—and as respects the two great belligerents, one of those nations gives it her unqualified approbation, and the other treats it with perfect contempt If we consider them as measures of precaution and preservation, being in their terms perpetual and implying [264] an abandonment of our rights on the ocean, they are too humiliating to comport with the spirit and dignity of a great, free and independent nation—and too distreſsing and expensive to consist with the vital interest of our Country.

5th. That we consider the late acts of Congress to enforce and render more effectual the several acts before refered to as fraught with ills still more alarming being repugnant to a just construction of many of the most sacred articles in our bill of rights and constitution of government and to our apprehension should it be carried into effect its continuance will forbode a train of calamities to our Country—which may Heaven avert! among others that which excited so much "anxious solicitude" in the mind of our revered Washington—"a separation of the States" An event we should as deeply deprecate as any next to a deprivation of our constitutional rights. This act we are with reluctance compelled to view as impolitic, arbitrary, and unconstitutional in its most striking and alarming traits which are the following—It attempts to transfer legislative and Judicial powers to the Executive, and Judicial to the military—It would subject our property and possefsions to unreasonable searches and seizures and without legal warrant from the civil magistrate—It substitutes the secret orders and instructions of the President in the place of good and wholesome laws publicly and deliberately pafsed by the Legislature, and attempts to give them the same solemnity and effect—It attempts to preclude the citizens from the benefit of a trial by jury in certain controversies concerning property—Its execution will violate the eighth [265] article of the amendments to the constitution of the United States which declares that "excefsive bail shall not be required"—nor excefsive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted,,—

The Agents of the Executive, under his orders, may upon the impulse of suspicion and belief, pronounce this meeting illegal, enter into this afsembly interrupt our deliberations and forcibly disperse us—It submits to the command of the Executive and his agents the land and naval forces and the militia of the United States to enforce some of its dangerous provisions—and in fact attempts to place our Country—in this time of peace under a kind of military law which is repugnant to the principles of Republican freedom, and has ever been a direct step towards despotism.—

6th. That those members of Congrefs who have so ably opposed the pafsage of these laws, and so nobly encountered the various difficulties of a personal and public nature which have so closely invested them have displayed that wisdom and enlightened zeal, that patriotic fortitude and patience which the importance of the subject required and which highly merits the notice respect and acknowledgements of all their fellow citizens—

7th. That the early application of a constitutional remedy for the grievances of which we thus complan, is highly necefsary—and which [while] we freely and we believe justly animadvert upon the measures of government, we ought not to pass without just reprehension the inexcusable delinquencies of ourselves and fellow citizens in the exercise of the right of suffrage—We have important duties to perform in a iniform and promt attendance at the poll and in an honest and wise bestowment of [266] offices- On this depends the welfare of our Country—By these means are existing evils to be remedied—

8th That we will support the constitution of this State and the United States—and are ready with our lives and fortunes to aid in any constitutional measure of the general government tending to the security honor and prosperity of our Country—But while we would inculcate and practice respect for just laws and discountenance irregular opposition to those that are grievous, we shall at all times esteem it our duty to guard our constitutional rights in a manner becoming freemen as well as against domestic as foreign violence and agrefsion—

Voted that a copy of the foregoing resolutions be published in the Dartmouth Gazette—

Your Committee appointed for the purpose beg [289] leave to submit the following resolutions for consideration

Resolved—That in the present alarming state of our publick affairs, when our dearest rights and the best interests of the nation are placed in the utmost jeopardy, it is our indispensable duty as citizens to exercise the right guaranted to us by the constitution,—"to afsemble in an orderly and peaceable manner" freely to exprefs our opinions of publick men and measures as also "to consult on the common good"

Rockingham, in the sentiments and opinions expreſsed in the Memorial to the President of the United States, adopted by them, at their Meeting at Brentwood, on the 5th day of August 1812: And that we will, in concert with them, exert all the powers vested in us by the constitution to remove from the councils of the Nation the authors of our distreſses by elevating to their stations men of intelligent patriotism, advocates of "peace and honest friendship with all Nations, entangling alliances with none."—

Resolved.—That we view the private Meetings of Members of Congreſs, at the seat of the general government, commonly called Congreſsional Caucuses, convened expreſsly for the purpose of imposing on the nation candidates for President & Vice President, as [290] highly pernicious, and even fatal in their tendency; as calculated, in an eminent degree, to undermine what, in a free Country, is the palladium of its citizens—The freedom of Elections.—

Resolved.—That [we] view as a cause of most serious alarm the frequent attempts of the friends of administration, by threats and lawleſs violence to overawe constitutional opposition; and thereby to impair or totally destroy what no freeman can honourably survive— The Liberty of Speech & of the Preſs.—

Resolved.—As the sense of this meeting, that the principle attempted to be established, by which the Militia are detached from their superior Officers and placed under the command of those of the General Government, is a principle, which under existing circumstances, is not only unconstitutional, but dangerous in a high degree, and in its tendency subversive of State Sovereignty,—and—that Governors Strong and Griswold, for their dignified and Constitutional vindication of the rights of their respective States, merit our unequivocal approbation.
